

- Produced by the Banuelos Family, experienced premium tequila makers of Mexico
- Made from Blue Weber Agave on the Banuelos estate in the Highlands of Jalisco—the prime growing region of Mexico
- The label and quality is preferred by Mexican-Americans throughout the USA
- Blanco is extremely smooth with a spicier flavor
- Reposado is aged for 3 months in new American white oak barrels; it received the "Best White Spirit" award at the Wine & Spirits Wholesalers of America competition
- Añejo is aged in virgin American oak barrels for 12 months; its dark and brilliant color and spicy flavor offers a velvety smooth sip
- All types go through a state-of-the-art fermentation and distillation process
- During fermentation, classical music is played to ensure a harmonious transition to great tasting tequila

Produced by traditional methods, exceptionally smooth and balanced
